ENMU Percussion Ensemble to play at SPC on Nov. 11

LEVELLAND – The Eastern New Mexico Percussion Ensemble will perform in a concert at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 11 in the Helen DeVitt Jones Theatre for the Fine Arts on the South Plains College campus.

The ENMU Percussion Ensemble will perform works by Frank Zappa, Christopher Rouse, Steve Reich, Warren Benson, George H. Green and Mark Ford.

The members of the ENMU Percussion Ensemble are music majors and non-music majors who are strong players interested in studying and performing music written and arranged for percussion instruments. Musical styles vary from rock to pop through classical, with a few pieces that defy categorization.

The Percussion Ensemble is directed by Neil Rutland and includes two former SPC Fine Arts music major students, John Jones and Sam Villarreal.
