SPC Jazz Band to perform Tuesday at Coronado High School

LEVELLAND – The South Plains College Jazz Band will perform at Jazz Night at Coronado High School, 3307 Vicksburg Ave., at 7 p.m. Tuesday (Nov. 17) in the auditorium.

Admission is free.

The concert will open with the CHS Jazz Band, under the direction of Phil Sutherland, followed by the SPC Jazz Band, directed by Dr. Bruce Keeling, professor of Music; and the Hub City Jazz Orchestra.

The SPC Jazz Band will perform "The Opener" by Carl Strommen, featuring Aaron Cook on trumpet and Saria Sabinas on alto sax; Glenn Miller's "The Nearness of You," featuring vocalist Nicole Keeling; "Fly Me To The Moon," featuring Lynda Reid, SPC Symphonic Band director on tenor sax; and a ballad, "My Beau," featuring Dr. John Kennedy on flugal horn. Kennedy is the director of bands at Estacado High School. Al Gardner, associate professor of Percussion at SPC, also will perform.

Other songs include "I've Got You under My Skin," featuring vocalist Rob Guajardo; and "Takin' It To Church" by Shelton Berg. The chart will feature Jon Johnson, professor of Music at SPC, on piano; Dion Hearon on bass, Reid and Will Hooper on guitar. This a gospel-style chart.
